

Friday Is Courtesy Day In Our Thanksgiving Sale of Suits Saturday

Thanksgiving in Clarksburg

It is a home day to be observed by all the family, by the lads and lassies honoring their parents.

This is Thursday, November 18th. Thursday, November 25, seven days off.

Every year there is a war on with Turkey that ends satisfactorily with Jersey Cranberries instead of aeroplanes. So may it be this year even more abundantly.

With bumper crops, increasing bank deposits, unparalleled industrial activity with settled piece, with good will to all the world, with whom we are on good terms this Thanksgiving should be the cheeriest and happiest day of our lives.

Let us not overlook our unfortunate brother across the water. There are people around us who will suffer quietly rather than have Block Parties to aid them, or publish their privations to the public. Put yourself in their place and find a way to give them food first and clothes afterwards, and and thus make for yourself and them a double Thanksgiving time.

Thrifty Home-Folk are Buying in the Timely Sale of Thanksgiving Linens

Buying not only one cloth, but always several and often a half dozen, so as to take full advantage of the savings.

There are 35 different patterns of Table Linen, at six different prices; 50 styles of napkins and 15 different sets in this great special sale.

No odds and ends, no mercerized cotton passed off as linen, no scrimped widths, but all perfect goods, in new designs.

There are linens here for every day use, and the finest sorts for special occasions.

This is an especially good opportunity for people having new homes to fill up their linen closets or those re-furnishing hotels or apartments.

Dance Fashions For Young Women Are Most Fascinating

We believe the new frocks are the prettiest we have ever had, they are so dainty in their make-up of nets and chimmering charmeuse, soft taffetas, new light-colored plaids and stripes, enriched with fine laces, tiny galloons of flowers and iridescent bead trimming.

Besides the favored pale evening shades are exquisite new shaded effects.

In addition to the above are fifteen exquisite creations from the hand and brain of Madam Jackson, New York, who gets inspiration in Paris and her creations often surpass models copied from original importations, $50.00 to $100.00.

The seating in the Rose room in the Salons of Dress on the second floor is as you would have it.

Aid Society Entertained.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Ad- amston Methodist Episcopal church was entertained at the home of the president, Mrs. George M. Smith, of that place, Wednesday afternoon. After devotional service, the business of the society was transacted. The society decided to hold its annual Christmas bazaar on Thursday and Friday evening, December 9 and 10, in the basement rooms of the church.

On the evening of December 9, the society will serve supper at the church. Many articles of fancy work, quilts, comforts and home-made candles will be for sale. The proceeds of the bazaar will be used toward liquidating the society's subscription to the new church fund. At the conclusion of the business session, the hostess, assisted by her sister, Mrs. L. G. Riggs, served a delicious luncheon.

Those present were Mrs. Cecil Sullivan, the Rev. and Mrs. A. S. Arnett, Mrs. Arthur Kidd, Mrs. C. F. Barth, Mrs. Peter Burg, Mrs. John Britton, Mrs. F. A. McFarlin, Mrs. W. H. Palmer, Mrs. William W. Carr, Mrs. C. M. Franckle, Mrs. W. V. Hutchison, Mrs. L. G. Riggs and Mrs. Carl Drummond.

Mothers' Club Meeting.

A most excellent meeting of the Stealey Heights Mothers' Club was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Robinson on Baker avenue. The subject was "Teachers' Problems," and notwithstanding the absence of many of the teachers expected, the subject was very ably discussed and many good points were brought out. Professor Wolverton, of the Morgan school, gave a very interesting talk as did Miss Sorago, and county superintendent of Mothers' Clubs, Mrs. Orpha St. Clair, entered into the discussion. The Methodist quartet, composed of Mrs. Charles Ridenour, Mrs. C. C. Lanham, Mr. Howard Robinson and the Rev. C. W. Wise furnished music for the occasion which was very much appreciated and enjoyed by all present.

The Mothers' Club appreciates very much the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Robinson as hostesses as it is out of the usual order of mothers' clubs to have a hostess.

After the business session delicious refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. J. B. Post. There were twenty-five guests present as follows:

Mrs. Moine Entertains.

Mrs. Charles Moine, Jr., of North- view, delightfully entertained the Narcissus Club in her home on Goff avenue Wednesday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in doing all kinds of fancy work, and at a late hour refreshments were served by the hostess. Those in attendance were Mesdames Arthur Eschenfelder, Jesse Snider, C. F. Gerard, Julian Causasian, August Malfregeot, Paul Smith, Frank Swisher, Jules Malfregeot and R. F. Crimm; and Mesars. Phillip Malfregeot, Arthur Causasian, Edmund Smith and Jerome Malfregeot.
